Counselor-In-Training - Volunteer

Are you a natural leader and in high school? Do you enjoy hanging around with children between the ages of 6 and 8? Are you full of energy and have a passion for impacting the lives of kids?

If so, then consider being a C.I.T. this summer!

Counselors are without a doubt the heartbeat of our camp program. They spend 24/7 with campers, investing in their lives and being a Christ like example for campers to follow. Counseling at camp is not an easy job. It takes energy, it takes commitment, it takes drive, and it takes sacrifice. But, it's perhaps the most rewarding job at camp. The relationships you build and the memories you make are priceless.

We are currently looking for high school students to serve as C.I.T.'s for our Kids Camp!

You are:

- Following Jesus
- A leader with a contagious personality
- A team player who's able to work with others
- Teachable and humble enough to admit you don't know everything
- Able to communicate with young people
- Flexible with time and people
- Hard-working but love to have fun
- Someone who can stay focused
- Supportive and encouraging of others
- A high energy person confident in your ability to keep on keepin' on

You will be:

- Responsible for a small group of campers
- Supervised by an older counselor
- Engaging with campers daily, loving and inspiring them
- Leading small group discussions
- Plan activities with fellow colleagues
- Be silly and have fun
