

Photographer Job Description

For more information please email:
summer@campithiel.org

Photographer - Employment

Pictures are worth a thousand words. Do you believe it? Do you love taking and editing pictures? If so, then you're probably the person we're looking for.

Every moment at camp is important to us. Why? Because every moment is a memory worth capturing. Photographers are constantly moving wherever the campers are, taking dynamic pictures of what goes on at camp. Photographers have an unexplainable love for pressing the capture button at any given moment of the day. Parents love seeing photos of their campers having fun, smiling and building relationships. The photographer blesses every camper's parent through their gift of taking pictures.

Come make memories with us!

You are:

- Following after Jesus
- Talented and have strong photography skills
- Determined to capture dynamic photos
- Able to organize, sort and edit photos
- A good communicator orally and written
- Able to type and use a word processor
- Able to refrain from saying, "work it, work it, work it" while snapping shots

You will be:

- Taking pictures just about every minute of the day
- Editing and sorting photos every day into folders: X camp and day folders
- Choosing the "Photo of the Day," which will be posted on Facebook
- Uploading pictures daily to the Summer album on Facebook
- Running social media: Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, Snapchat, etc
- Creating end of the week slideshow of photos for Friday night dinner
- Recording videos for promotional materials (interviews, campers doing activities, etc.)
- Delivering camp photo to Program Director to print in time for Friday closing

The perfect fit is:

- Experienced in photography
- Knows how to edit photos
- Can type and use a word processor